

PRIVACY POLICY

Silsile.com (hereinafter referred as "SILSILE") recognizes the importance of maintaining the privacy of every user who visits our website. We value your privacy and appreciate your trust in us. We are committed to be transparent about the data we collect about you, how it is used and with whom it is shared.

This Privacy Policy applies when you use/visit our website, mobile or tablet application, or any other online service (collectively, the "Services") that links or refers to it. It does not govern or apply to information collected or used by SILSILE or its group companies through any other means.

By visiting and/or using our website, you agree to this Privacy Policy. We strongly recommend you read this privacy policy so that you understand our approach towards the use of your personal data.

SILSILE is licensed to operate and manage the websites of Silsile.com. and its subsidiaries (hereinafter referred as "Company"). We reserve the right to modify this privacy statement at any time as in required.

Information We Collect

We collect information directly from user(s), from third parties and automatically through our websites/mobile applications.

Registration for the Services may require that you supply certain personal information such as name, age, sex, contact number, email address and demographic information (area, location, IP address etc) to register. To aid convenience, users can sign up on any of our sites, and we extend the same login credentials to sign into any of the other sites. (Single Sign-on feature). You may also register or link your account through third party accounts such as Facebook, Google etc.

We collect limited information about your computer's connection to the Internet, including your IP address, when you visit our site. Your IP address does not identify you personally. We also collect and may store information that your computer or mobile device provides to us in connection with your use of our website/apps such as your browser type, type of computer or mobile device, browser language, IP address, mobile carrier, unique device identifier, location, and requested and referring URLs. We also receive information when you view content on or otherwise interact with our website/app/services, even if you have not created an account. We use this information to deliver our web pages to you upon request, to tailor our site to the interests of our users, to measure traffic on the website. This information may also be used by our advertisers/third party companies to personalize content, ads etc.

How We Collect Information

- We collect information directly from you when you register with us.

- We collect information (whether you are registered or not registered with us) when you browse our sites/apps, open or respond to an email from us (promotional or informational)
- When you post a comment on our website or raise a query/question to us through phone or email.
- We collect information from you when you register with us by linking your social media or third-party accounts. By doing this, you are authorizing them to share with us certain information from such accounts, and authorizing us to collect, store, and use this in accordance with this Privacy Policy.
- We collect information from you using third party tools, browser cookies and web beacons to improve user experience.
- Device Information: We may collect non-personal information about the computer, mobile device, or other device you use to access the service, such as IP address, geo-location information, unique device identifiers, browser type, browser language and other information for the purpose of providing customized information on the browser.
- Location Information: Our mobile application and websites may capture your current location if you choose to enable GPS feature in the app or browser.

Cookie Policy, pixels And Tracking

Cookies are small text files which contain a small amount of information that is downloaded to your computer or mobile device when you visit a website. When you visit the website again, or visit partner website which recognizes that cookie, your device is able to communicate with our website and the website can read the information held in that cookie.

We use Cookies to help you efficiently browse our websites and to save you time by not having to re-enter your details/preferences each time you visit. Cookies allow us to provide you with information and show you content relevant to you. We also use Cookies to analyze how our customers interact with our websites so we can improve the customer journey.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies in your browser settings. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to reject cookies if you prefer. You may find more help about managing cookies in your browser: Chrome, Internet Explorer, Mozilla Firefox & Safari. This may prevent you from having complete website experience by affecting the access to some of the links, services, or features. Information collected by cookies and web beacons is not personally identifiable.

Google Analytics: Google Analytics is a web analytics service offered by Google that tracks and reports website traffic. Google uses the data collected to track and monitor the use of our Service. This data is shared with other Google services. Google may use the collected data to contextualize and personalize the ads of its own advertising network.

You can opt-out of having made your activity on the Service available to Google Analytics by installing the Google Analytics opt-out browser add-on. The add-on prevents the Google Analytics JavaScript (ga.js, analytics.js, and dc.js) from sharing information with Google Analytics about visits activity.

Link to other Sites: Our Service may contain links to other sites that are not operated by us. If you click on a third-party link, you will be directed to that third party's site. We strongly advise you to review the Privacy Policy of every site you visit.

We have no control over and assume no responsibility for the content, privacy policies or practices of any third-party sites or services.

How We Use the Information

To Provide and Manage the Services You Request:

This includes, for example, processing your subscription, sending you electronic newsletters, or enabling you to participate in the features provided by the Services. It also includes providing personalized content and recommendations to you, including by email. Through such features, we can bring you information and content tailored to your individual interests and needs.

To Reach You:

We may periodically contact you with offers and information about the Services and our affiliates, including in connection with your accounts, online surveys, legal notices, news stories, new features that you are entitled to access, and other important information. You may opt out of receiving commercial email messages from us by following the instructions contained in those email messages.

To Customize Advertising:

We may use your information to facilitate the delivery of targeted ads, promotions, and offers to you, on behalf of ourselves and advertisers, on and off the Services. We may provide you with personalized services, such as recommendations on our websites, apps and in direct marketing and tailored advertising. This includes where we use cookies or similar technologies in relation to the devices you use, for example to make some of the adverts you see more relevant to you

Understand Our Readers and Users:

The Services conduct research on our users' demographics, interests and behavior based on the information we collect. We do this to better understand and serve our users, and to improve our products and services.

To Protect the Rights of the Services and others:

We may use your personal information as we believe is necessary or appropriate to protect, enforce, or defend the legal rights, privacy, safety, or property of the Services, its employees or agents, or other users and to comply with applicable law.

Consent:

We may otherwise use your information with your consent or at your direction.

How We Share Your Information

The following provides information about entities with which we may share information. Our practices vary depending on the type of information.

Logging In Through Social Media Services:

If you log into the Services with a social media service or if you connect a social media account with the Services, we may share your information with that social media service. The social media services' use of the shared information will be governed by the social media services' privacy policy and your social media account settings. If you do not want your information shared in this way, do not connect your social media service account with your Services.

Business Partners:

We may also share your information with business partners to provide you with services that you request.

Service Providers:

We may share information with vendors providing contractual services to us, such as hosting vendors, advertising service providers, and list managers. We also may share your information, including your payment information, as appropriate to process your payments for the Services or complete a transaction.

Other Parties When Required by Law or As Necessary to Protect Our Users and Services:

We may share your personal information as we believe is necessary or appropriate to protect, enforce, or defend the legal rights, privacy, safety, or property of the Services, our employees or agents or users or to comply with applicable law or legal process, including responding to requests from public and government authorities.

Affiliates:

We may share information within our family of affiliated companies and business associates.

Third Parties that Provide Content, Advertising, or Functionality:

When you use our Services, third parties may collect or receive certain information about you and/or your use of the Services (e.g., hashed data, clickstream information, browser type, time and date, information about your interactions with advertisements and other content), including through the use of cookies, beacons, mobile ad identifiers, and similar technologies, in order to provide content, advertising, or functionality or to measure and analyze ad performance, on our Services or other websites or platforms. This information may be combined with information collected across different websites, online services, and other linked or associated devices. These third parties may use your information to improve their own services and consistent with their own privacy policies.

Other Parties in Connection with a Corporate Transaction:

We reserve the right to transfer any information we have about you in the event that we sell or transfer all or a portion of our business or assets to a third party, such as in the event of a merger, acquisition, or in connection with a bankruptcy reorganization.

Otherwise With Your Consent or At Your Direction:

In addition to the sharing described in this Privacy Policy, we may share information about you with third parties whenever you consent to or direct such sharing.

We also may share other information with third parties in a manner that does not identify users, including, for example, aggregated data about how users are using our Services.

Links to Third-Party Sites:

Our Services may link to third-party websites and services that are outside our control. We are not responsible for the security or privacy of any information collected by other websites or other services. You should exercise caution and review the privacy statements applicable to the third-party websites and services you use.

Transfer Of Personal Data

Your information, including Personal Data, may be transferred to and maintained on computers located outside of your state, province, country or other governmental jurisdiction where the data protection laws may differ than those from your jurisdiction. We maintain servers around the world and your information may be processed on servers located outside of the country. Please note that we transfer the data, including personal data, to USA, India, Japan and Singapore and process it there. Your consent to this Privacy Policy followed by your submission of such information represents your agreement to that transfer. We will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this Privacy Policy and no transfer of your personal data will take place to an organization or a country unless there are adequate controls in place including the security of your data and other personal information.

Children's Personal Data

We do not aim any of our products or services directly at children under the age of 13 and we do not knowingly collect personal data about children under 13. Some of our services may have a higher age restriction and this will be shown at the point of registration. If you are a minor i.e. under the age of 16 years, you may use our products or services only if the consent is provided by the holder of parental responsibility over you

How Long We Keep Your Personal Data

We retain your information for as long as it is necessary to provide you with the service so that we can fulfil our contractual obligations and rights in relation to the information involved. Where we do not need your information to provide the service to you, we retain it only if we have a legitimate business purpose in keeping such data or where we are subject to a legal obligation to retain the data. We will also retain your data if necessary for the establishment, exercise, or defense of legal claims. For example, we may need to use it to answer your queries about a product or service and as a result may keep personal data while you are still using our product or services. We may also need to keep your personal data for accounting purposes, for example, where you have bought a subscription. If we no longer need your data, we will delete it or make it anonymous by removing all details that identify you. If we have asked for your permission to process your personal data and we have no other lawful grounds to continue with that processing, and you withdraw your permission, we will delete your personal data.

Access To Personal Information

You may access or modify your personal information by signing on to the website. We will not modify the information provided by you. However, you must update your personal information as soon as such changes are necessitated

Upon your request, we will close your account and remove your personal information from view as soon as reasonably possible, based on your account activity and in accordance with applicable law(s). However, we will retain the required personal information from closed accounts to comply with law, Avoid/check illegal and/or potentially prohibited activities and to enforce User Agreements; Comply with any court judgment / decree / order / directive / legal & government authority /applicable law; Investigate potential violations or applicable national & international laws; Investigate deliberate damage to the website/services or its legitimate operation; Detect, prevent, or otherwise address security and/or technical issues; safeguard p the rights, property or safety of company and/or its Directors, employees and the general public at large; Respond to Claims of third parties; and take such other actions as may be permitted by law.

Your Rights with Regard to The Personal Data That We Hold About You

If you would like to have a copy of the personal data, we hold on you or if you think that we hold incorrect personal data about you, please write at privacy@silisile.com We will deal with requests for copies of your personal data or for correction of your personal data within one month. If your request is complicated or if you have made a large number of requests, it may take us longer. We will let you know if we need longer than one month to respond. You will not have to pay a fee to obtain a copy of your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive, or excessive.

- Where you have provided us with consent to use your personal data, you can withdraw this at any time.
- Where applicable, you may also have a right to receive a machine-readable copy of your personal data.
- You also have the right to ask us to delete your personal data or restrict how it is used. There may be exceptions to the right to erasure for specific legal reasons which, if applicable, we will set out for you in response to your request. Where applicable, you have the right to object to processing of your personal data for certain purposes.
- You have the right to have data which we process based on your consent or in fulfillment of a contract automatically delivered to yourself or to a third party in a standard, machine-readable format. If you require the direct transfer of data to another responsible party, this will only be done to the extent technically feasible.

If we decide to change our Privacy Policy we will post the changes here. If the changes are significant, we may also choose to email all our registered users with the new details. If required by law, we will get your permission or give you the opportunity to opt out of any new uses of your data.

Deleting Your Information

You may submit a request to access or delete the information we have collected about you by sending your request to us at privacy@silsile.com We will respond to your request consistent with applicable law and subject to proper verification.

SILSILE PRIVACY POLICY

Welcome to SILSILE! This Privacy Policy describes how SILSILE, LLC. (“SILSILE,” “we,” “us,” or “our”) collects, uses, processes, and discloses your information on www.silsile.com (the “Site”) and the products, services, mobile websites, and native mobile applications (collectively and together with the Site, the “Services”).

By using the Site and the Services, and in particular when you fill out an account on SILSILE, you agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy and the collection, storage, use, processing and disclosure by SILSILE and its services providers of the Personal Information that you enter into the Services. If you don’t agree with this Privacy Policy or the Terms of Service, please do not use the Services.

What types of information does SILSILE collect, how is it collected, and how does it use it?

1. Personal Information

- a. For the purpose of this Privacy Policy, “Personal Information” means any information that uniquely identifies you or any other individual or otherwise contains personally identifiable information provided by or obtained from you or any other user of the Services. Personal Information may include certain types of Basic Information, Secure Information, Read Or Write Access Deputy Information, Access Code Information and Public Information, each of which is described in further detail below. SILSILE does not share Personal Information with any third party other than as described in this Privacy Policy.
- b. “Basic Information” means the first and last name, email address, gender, zip code, date of birth, and the date and time of associated with the Account creation and (if applicable) deletion of you, your Read Or Write Access Nominees, and any Co-Administrators (each a “Collaborator”) on your SILSILE. We may use your Basic Information to operate, provide, and improve the Site, the Services and our (and our successors’ and assigns’) businesses, to contact you and (if applicable) your Collaborators to send information about the Services. If you or your Collaborators don’t want to receive email communications from us, follow the “unsubscribe” instructions at the bottom of any email message received from us. That said, there are certain types of important email communications that we need to always be able to send to you and your Collaborators (such as notifications about password changes, permissions changes, or changes to the Terms of Service or this Privacy Policy) for which you may not be given an “unsubscribe” option.
- c. “Secure Information” means your private, sensitive, personal information that you privately submit through the Services, including your health and medical information, financial information, and legal information. Some of such health and health related information may be considered “Protected Health Information” or “PHI,” as defined by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”). While we may know whether and when you submitted a particular type or category of Secure Information, we do not during our standard daily business operations have access to the content or details of any Secure Information you privately submit through the Services because it is encrypted. We will share your Secure Information only with your designated Read Or Write Access Deputy (as defined below) and only pursuant to your, or (if applicable) your Co-Administrator's, explicit instruction, except when we are required to by law or in other rare circumstances, as described below.

- d. "Use Information" means certain high-level information about your use of and access to the Services that may be visible to a financial advisor or Partner Provider if you accepted an Invitation from that financial advisor or Partner Provider, as applicable, to sign up for and access the Premium Services (as defined below) (if applicable), which may include the type of SILSILE you signed up for, the date and time of your last login to the Services, your total number of logins to the Services, and which sections of your SILSILE you completed. We may share your Use Information only with your financial advisor (if applicable).
- e. "Public Information" means any personally identifying information you post in any public forum through the Services (e.g., in the comments section below articles). Please remember that any Public Information you post publicly on the Services is not private, and thus may be used or disclosed by any third party who reads such Public Information without our control and without your knowledge, and search engines may index that information. Accordingly, please think carefully before publicly posting any Public Information on the Services.

2. Non-Personal Information

- a. In contrast to Personal Information, "Non-Personal Information" does not, on its own, uniquely identify you or anyone else as a specific individual, but rather provides technical data, such as information about your interaction with the Services or about your browser. Non-Personal Information may include Aggregate Information, and Cookie Information, each of which is described in further detail below.
- b. "Aggregate Information" means statistical information about how, how often, and when you use the Services and your demographic information. We may use Aggregate Information to understand how and how often people use the Services, which in turn allows us to improve them, but never in a way that is personally identifiable.
- c. "Cookie Information" means information collected via cookies which enable our servers to recognize your web browser and tell us how and when you visit the Site and otherwise use the Services. Cookies are small pieces of data that are stored on your computer through your web browser when you access a website. Our cookies by themselves do not contain Personal Information, and we do not combine Cookie Information with your Personal Information to tell us who you are.
 - I. While many browsers have an option to turn off the cookie feature (which may prevent your browser from accepting any new cookie or may allow you to decide which cookie to accept from any website on a case-by-case basis), we strongly recommend that you leave cookies active because the Cookie Information we derive enables us to provide you with the most advantageous and attractive features of the Services.

- II. Please note, however, that this Privacy Policy only covers our use of cookies and Cookie Information and does not cover the use of cookies by third parties. Certain third-party vendors use cookies in certain unrestricted publicly available parts of our Site to provide analytical data and target and serve ads based on your prior visits to Site and use of the Services. We do not control when or how a third-party places cookies on your computer.

3. Information SILSILE Typically Does Not Collect (But Sometimes Might)

- a. While we may charge a fee now or in the future for use of certain aspects of our Services (the “Premium Services”), your valid credit card number, type, expiration date, name and billing address (collectively, “Payment Information”) is collected, stored, used and processed by Stripe Inc. (“Stripe”), our third party payment processing company, and not by us. Accordingly, the collection, storage, use and processing of your Payment Information is governed by Stripe’s applicable terms of service available at <https://stripe.com/us/terms> and privacy policy available at <https://stripe.com/us/privacy>. However, sometimes we may request and receive some of your Payment Information from Stripe in order to complete certain transactions you initiated through the Services, to enroll you in a discount or other rebate program you elected to participate in, to protect against or identify potentially fraudulent transactions, or otherwise as necessary to manage our business. Accordingly, sometimes we may obtain Payment Information pertaining to you as a result of your use of the Services; but, you can rest assured that we will only use any such Payment Information we obtain in furtherance of the Services.

Does SILSILE share the information it collects or receives, and if so, with whom and why?

1. Sharing with Read Or Write Access Nominees

- a. We will share your Secure Information only with your designated Read Or Write Access Nominees and only pursuant to and in accordance with your opt-in authorization (“Authorization”) and explicit instruction, including the permissions you set that give any particular Read Or Write Access Nominee access to only certain designated portions of your SILSILE. If you designate any of your Secure Information as only shareable with Read or Write Access Nominees after you are Declared Dead (the “After Death Sections”), then SILSILE will only share such After Death Sections according to the timing and permissions that you have explicitly provided. As part of your use of the Services, you may designate one of your Read or Write Access Nominees as an “Unlocker” of your “After Death Sections.” With your explicit permission, the Unlocker will be able to alert SILSILE that you have been “Declared Dead” through their use of the Services, and your “After Death Sections” will be made visible to your Read Or Write Access Nominees according to your Authorization, explicit instructions and permissions.

2. Sharing with Co-Administrators

- a. If you are enrolled in a Household Membership, your Secure Information and your Read or Write Access Deputy Information are shared with any Co-Administrators associated with your Household Membership. Co-Administrators can equally view, edit, and administrate all parts of the SILSILE that you are using.

3. Sharing with Financial Advisors or Partner Providers

- a. If you signed up for the Services using an Invitation you received from your financial advisor or a Partner Provider, then we may share your Use Information with such financial advisor or Partner Provider, all of whom are contractually bound to protect the confidentiality of your Personal Information. For the avoidance of doubt, we don't share any of your Secure Information with Financial Advisors or Partner Providers unless you have designated them as a Read or Write Access Deputy for the particular Secure Information you have chosen to share.

4. Sharing with Agents

- a. We may share certain of your Basic Information with certain partners or service providers we use to perform, facilitate or improve the Services (collectively, "Agents"), but only in order for SILSILE to be able to provide you the Services. All of our Agents are contractually bound to protect the confidentiality of your Personal Information.
- b. We may also share non-personal Aggregate Information with our Agents so that they understand how and how often people use our Services and their services, which in turn allows both us and them to improve.
- c. We do not share your Secure Information with Agents.

5. Sharing with Acquirers

- a. If SILSILE is involved in a merger, acquisition, sale, reorganization, liquidation or other disposition of all or substantially all of its assets to another entity (the "Acquirer"), you will be notified via email and/or a prominent notice on our Site of any such change in ownership and of the choices available to you with respect to your Personal Information. Remember, you can always choose to export and delete your Secure Information from the Services. The Acquirer will possess your Basic Information and any other Personal Information you do not delete from the Services (which may include part or all of your Secure Information) and will assume the rights and obligations regarding your Personal Information as described in this Privacy Policy.

6. Sharing pursuant to applicable law

- a. Other than sharing with Read Or Write Access Nominees, Agents or Acquirers as described above, we can only share Personal Information, including your Secure Information, in the limited circumstances described below relating to your abuse or misuse of the Services or legal process.
- b. If we believe that you have misused or abused the Services or the Personal Information of any other user, or have attempted to interfere with or harm the Services, we will investigate and cooperate with appropriate law enforcement officials, which may include sharing your Basic Information with them in order to protect our rights or property or that of other users, Read Or Write Access Nominees, Agents, and others. We will give our full cooperation in any legal process or criminal investigation into any misuse or abuse of the Services.

- c. We may also share your Personal Information solely to the extent required by law to comply with a subpoena or analogous legal process or governmental request; while this may include certain of your Secure Information, rest assured that we will never willingly share any of your Secure Information unless required by law. We may also share your Personal Information as otherwise necessary to protect our rights or property or that of other users, Read Or Write Access Nominees, Agents and others.
- d. We will promptly notify you if we receive any request for your Personal Information or Secure Information from any governmental entity or other third party pursuant to a subpoena or analogous legal process before sharing any such requested information, unless we are legally prohibited from so notifying you or we have a good faith reason to believe that such sharing is or may be necessary to protect someone's life, avoid serious physical injury or property loss or damage, or to prevent or investigate any ongoing crime.
- e. As discussed in the Terms at <https://www.SILSILE.com/terms-conditions>, no fiduciary duty is or will ever be created between you and SILSILE by virtue of you using the Services. Accordingly, while communications between you and us are protected in accordance with this Privacy Policy, they are not protected by the physician-patient privilege, doctor-patient confidentiality, attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, or any other fiduciary duty.

How does SILSILE protect, safeguard and secure the information it collects?

The security, privacy and confidentiality of your Personal Information is of utmost and critical importance to us, which is why we have implemented a variety of industry standard (or better) administrative, physical and technical protections to safeguard the security, privacy, confidentiality and integrity of your Personal Information, including without limitation your Secure Information.

For starters, your password is encrypted and not stored in a readable fashion. Moreover, our technology uses encryption algorithms of the same quality relied on by banks, the military and the U.S. government. When we collect, maintain, access, use, or disclose your Personal Information, including without limitation your Secured Information, we will do so using systems and processes consistent with information privacy and security requirements under applicable federal and state laws, including, without limitation, HIPAA. Accordingly, your Secure Information is stored in a HIPAA-compliant hosting provider that has 24/7 physical and biometric protections, firewalls, intrusion detection systems, and an array of other technological safeguards and security certifications.

Nevertheless, no website operator can guarantee that its security measures or safeguards will be 100% effective, and SILSILE cannot guarantee absolute security of any of your Personal Information, including without limitation your Secure Information. SILSILE SHALL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE OR LIABLE FOR UNAUTHORIZED ACCESS, HACKING OR OTHER SECURITY INTRUSIONS OR FAILURE TO STORE OR THE THEFT, DELETION, CORRUPTION, DESTRUCTION, DAMAGE, OR LOSS OF ANY DATA OR INFORMATION, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION SECURE INFORMATION.

If we discover a security incident that compromises your Secure Information, we will let you know about it in accordance with applicable law. Please notify us immediately of any suspected or unauthorized use of your password or account or any other such incident by contacting us through our help center at <https://help.SILSILE.com/customer/portal/emails/new>.

What are the privacy rights in California?

Under California Civil Code §§ 1798.83-1798.84, California residents are entitled to know how certain personal information is shared with third parties for marketing purposes. We will never share your Personal Information with third parties for marketing purposes in violation of this Privacy Policy or otherwise without your express permission. Nevertheless, if you are a California resident and would like a copy of the notice stating the foregoing, please submit a written request to:
